

WE DON'T NEED AN

APOLOGIZER-IN-CHIEF

President Obama and Secretary of State Hillary Clinton apologized to rioting Pakistanis recently in a TV ad paid for with taxpayer dollars.

The Obama Administration apologized because our God given right of freedom of speech had offended radical Muslims who were murdering innocent people in the streets.

No American president should ever apologize for the free speech and freedom of religion that are a part of our Judeo-Christian heritage and guaranteed in our Constitution.

We don't want an Apologizer-in-Chief in the White House who bows to Islam and is defensive about America's Constitution and our Bill of Rights.

We need a President who will defend our Constitution - not be ashamed of it.

Barack Hussein Obama has never apologized to Christians or Jews for the hate speech against them, which is printed in Islamic publications.

Did Obama apologize to Catholics for the offensive display depicting Christ in urine currently being shown at the Edward Tyler Nahem gallery in New York City?

Why is Obama only concerned about offending rioting, looting, and radical Muslims who become outraged at the slightest offense?
